ANDREW ROBESON, JR.

Born December 21, 1814

Died September 27, 1900

Andrew Robeson, Jr., the subject of this paragraph and "Grand Pap" to many of us, was born near Tyrone, Pa., son of Andrew Robeson, Sr., and Rosamond Denison Robeson. In early life, he enjoyed such educational advantages as were offered by the local subscription schools and worked in his father's cotton and woolen mill.

On March 6th, 1835, he was married to Miss Nancy Stombaugh. To this union eight children were born, four dying in infancy. In 1836 this young couple came to Indiana and for about ten years Mr. Robeson was engaged in the woolen mill industry. He then purchased the farm located two and one-half miles East of Camden, Ind., where they both spent the remainder of their lives.

Regarded as a hard task master in some ways, he was, however able to maintain the respect and good will of all his acquaintances in the true Scotch-Irish manner and possessed business sagacity much above the average, owning seven hundred twenty acres of good land at one time. In October, 1872, he was married to Miss Lydia Martin. One Child was born to this union.

NANCY STOMBAUGH

Born July 20, 1813

Died March 20, 1872

Very little is known of the early life of Miss Stombaugh, except that she was born at Frankstown, Pa., and had a reasonable education in the schools there. It is believed that she worked at home until the time of her marriage. She has been described as a woman of sterling character, very even tempered, rather quiet and unassuming but a personality that is in evidence through the following generations.
